Disclosure of Financial and Competing Interests Related to Sponsored Projects

“You” and “your” represents both you and your immediate family members: you, and as applicable, your spouse/domestic partner, and any dependent children.

Your interest(s) must be disclosed below when the following definitions and threshold(s) apply in relation to any current and/or new sponsored projects:

Your financial interests, holdings, and positions over the past 12 months included:

- Income, Travel sponsorship/reimbursement, or other remuneration (e.g., consulting, or other professional fees, Honoria, gifts, etc.) received from a single entity, valued at $5,000 USD or more.
- Equity (stock, stock options, other ownership) held in an individual company or other entity
- Intellectual Property rights and interests
- Holding an officer, director, board member, or other executive or fiduciary position for an entity

Disclosure Exceptions – DO NOT DISCLOSE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

- Equity and income from investments such as mutual funds or retirement accounts, where you do not directly control investment decisions for any individual entity
- Income and travel sponsorship/reimbursement from professional activities such as seminars, lectures, teaching engagements, and service on advisory committees or review panels, when received from:
 - WOU and other U.S.-based institutions of higher education and their associated academic teaching hospitals, medical centers, and research institutes, and
 - U.S. based federal, state, or local government agencies.

Question 1:
